

Presenting Sponsor:

Our Platinum Supporters:

Our Gold Supporters:

The Board of Directors of The Biotechnology Initiative cordially invite you to a

A CELEBRATION OF Success

2010 TBI PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL AWARDS DINNER

Tuesday, February 23, 2010 Four Seasons Hotel

2010 TBI AWARD RECIPIENTS

Please join us for an evening dedicated to the recognition of individuals who have contributed much to the success of the health and life science sector.

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Four Seasons Hotel, 21 Avenue Road

Regency Ballroom

Cocktails 5:30, Dinner 6:30

Dress: Business Attire

Please complete the attached reservation form to confirm your seats.

Seating is limited.

Tel: 416-426-7293

email: events@ontbi.org

John Dirks

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

- A highly respected leader who has inspired and led the community to imagine a bigger future in biotech
- An individual who is highly recognized as a significant contributor in more than one of the following domains: industry, government, academia and volunteerism

Gregg Szabo

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR AWARD

- An interactive participant in the biotech community who volunteers for various committees and receives no remuneration
- An individual who finds a way to help and adds energy to biotech events.

Murray McLaughlin

COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

- An individual who has helped build the biotech community and strengthen its global reputation, where he or she has gone above and beyond the call of duty.

Marc LePage

PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD

- An individual who has helped build the life science community in Ontario in various ways that could include: innovative policy, structural support, development of research, commercialization of intellectual property or developing public - private partnerships.

EMERGING LIFE SCIENCE COMPANY OF THE YEAR

- A company in Ontario which is active in life science research and development and involved in moving innovative products into or closer to commercialization.